

Storytelling starter ideas (ages 3–6)

Use these original ideas as prompts. Children can tell a real experience or imagine a story using “I”.

Ages 3–4: tell a beginning, action and ending. Ages 5–6: add feelings and short dialogue.

Let children choose their own words and details. Adults help make props. Use light paper props without small loose parts.

No.	Story title	What I can do	Sample story: what I did	Simple prop	Parent prompt
1	I Helped at Home	I can put away my toys.	My toys were all over the floor. I sorted them into a box. Now I could find my favourite toy, and there was room to play.	Small empty toy box or a picture of one	What did you put away? How did you feel afterwards?
2	I Shared My Crayons	I can share something I am using.	My friend wanted to draw but had no crayons. I offered some of mine. We drew together and showed each other our pictures.	Two large paper crayons	Which colour did you share? What did your friend draw?
3	I Invited a New Friend to Play	I can help someone feel included.	A new child stood beside our game. I said hello and asked him to join. I explained the game, and we had fun together.	Paper ball or drawing of a game	What game would you invite a new friend to play?
4	I Said Sorry and Made It Right	I can apologise and help fix a mistake.	I accidentally knocked down my friend's blocks. I said sorry and asked if I could help. We rebuilt the tower together.	Cardboard picture of a block tower	What could you do after making a mistake?
5	I Tried Again	I am not angry when I fail to do something.	My paper tower fell down. I felt upset, took a breath and tried a wider base. This time it stood up, and I felt proud.	Two pictures: fallen tower and standing tower	What was difficult for you? What did you try next?

6	I Used My Gentle Words	I can explain my feelings calmly.	I wanted the toy my friend was using. I almost shouted. I took a breath and asked for a turn. We agreed to take turns.	Paper toy picture	What can you say when you want a turn?
7	I Made Grandma Smile	I can show care with a small action.	Grandma looked tired. I made her a drawing and sat beside her. She smiled, and we talked about my drawing.	Child's drawing or handmade card	Who would you make a picture for? What would you draw?
8	I Looked After My Plant	I can care for a living thing with an adult's help.	I planted a seed with Dad. We checked the soil and watered it when needed. One day I spotted a tiny leaf and called Dad to look.	Paper seedling with a fold-out leaf	What did you notice as your plant grew?
9	I Kept Our Playground Clean	I can put my rubbish in a bin.	After my snack, I held on to my wrapper. I found a bin with Mum and threw it away. I was happy to leave the playground clean.	Clean paper wrapper and a paper bin picture	Where did you put your snack wrapper?
10	I Remembered to Say Thank You	I can thank people who help me.	My teacher helped me zip my bag. I said thank you. At home I also thanked Dad for helping me, and told him what happened.	Small bag or a drawing of one	Who helped you today? What did they do?

儿童讲故事入门点子（3–6岁）

这些原创点子可作为引导。孩子可以讲真实经历，也可以用“我”来讲想象的故事。

3–4岁：讲清楚开始、行动和结尾。5–6岁：加入感受和简单对话。

让孩子选择自己的用词和细节。道具由大人协助制作，使用轻便纸道具，避免细小零件。
